PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Coordinating Ministry for Maritime Affairs and Investment, Jakarta, Indonesia • Consultant — 2021 - 2022

The coordinating minister presides as the co-chair of the Indonesia-China High-level Dialogue and Cooperation Mechanism (HDCM). Within this framework, my responsibilities included serving as a personal consultant at the Secretariat of the Indonesia-China HDCM. The Secretariat functions as a pivotal entity, monitoring, resolving issues, and facilitating bilateral collaborative projects as well as private investments. Our responsibilities extend to coordinating inter-ministerial activities, orchestrating bilateral meetings, supervising collaborative and investment initiatives, hosting business matching forums, and moderating discussions on trade-related issues. In addition to these duties, I served as an interpreter during official visits and meetings. The following list includes events that I was involved in as part of the organizing committee:

- o Indonesia-China Business Matching Forum, held in Jakarta, 2021
- o Second High-level Dialogue and Cooperation Mechanism Summit between China and Indonesia, held in Bali, 2021
- o Working Visit of President Joko Widodo to Beijing, China, and Tokyo, Japan, in 2021

Kompas R&D – Data Center, Jakarta, Indonesia • Research Assistant — 2020 - Present

Kompas is a nationwide news agency in Indonesia, and I work as a research assistant at the Kompas Research and Development Center. I am also a regular contributing writer to Kompaspedia, an online platform where Kompas R&D publishes its research data and findings. My research spans a wide range of areas, tailored to meet the institution's research needs. A significant portion of my work focuses on Indonesia's industry upstreaming policy and energy transition. I continue to hold my position as a research assistant while pursuing my master's degree studies in public administration and regularly publish articles.

Xavier High School, Chuuk, Federated States of Micronesia • Teacher — 2019 - 2020

Driven by a desire to have a greater impact on society, I joined a volunteer program dedicated to teaching high school students in the Federated States of Micronesia. There, I taught an ethics class and was responsible for campus ministry and social service programs. Working alongside a diverse faculty from the US, Australia, Japan, Singapore, the Philippines, and Indonesia, I gained valuable insights into collaboration in youth education and public service.
